The Latest From Kentucky.

I have a good joke to tell you about a Kentuckian and his dog. The other day two young wags, who were sitting under the porch of a hotel, amused themselves making facetious remarks on the bypassers. Presently there came along a tall rawboned Kentuckian, with a large rough dog at his heels, blind of one eye and not the first symptom of a tail. The wags were in ecstacies. Here were two legitimate subjects for fun. The tailless dog was irresistible.

"Neighbor," said one of the facetious gentlemen, "what sort of an animal d'ye call that? He seems to have come from a country where tails were scarce."

"Hush!" whispered the other, with an air of mystery, "don't you know that that's a disguised volunteer from the army of occupation defrauded on special duty."

"Gentlemen," said the tall Kentuckian, hauling up, and leisurely taking his seat in a vacant chair, "don't make fun of that thur dog, if you please," and with a face of profound melancholy, he added, "unless you want to hurt his feelings."

"Oh, of course not, sir, if you dislike it. But, pray, how did he come to be curtailed of his fair proportions?"

"Well, gentlemen, I'll tell you," said the Kentuckian, replenishing the capacious hollow of his cheek with a quid of tobacco. "That thar dog was the greatest bar-hunter in Kaintuck a few years ago. I used to take my rifle and old Riptearer, of an afternoon, and think nothing o killing ten bars. One cold day in the middle of winter, being troubled a good deal with an old he-bar that used to carry off our pigs by the dozen, I started out with Riptearer, determined to kill the old rascal or die in the attempt. Well, arter we'd gone about two miles through the woods, we all of a sudden came came right smack on the old bar, with his wife and three cubs. I know'd I couldn't shoot 'em all at once, and I know'd if I killed either of the old uns, tother would make at me, for I could see they war mortal hungry. So, sez I, 'Rip, what'll we do?' Rip know'd what I was sayin, and without waiting to hold any confab about it, he guv a growl and pitched right in among 'em. With that I let fly at the she-bar, cos I know'd she was the wust when the cubs was about. Over she rolled as dead as a mackerel. Rip he hitched on to the he-bar, and they had a most mighty tussel for about five minutes, when the bar begun to roar enough like blue thunder. I run up then, and knocked his brains out with the but-eend of my rifle. The cubs was so skeered and cold that I killed 'em all in two minutes with my knife. But Rip took on terrible about my knockin of the old bar on the head. At fust I thought he was goin' to tackle on to me, and sez I, "Rip, that's downright ungrateful." With that he sneaked off in a huff, but I could easily see he was terrible mad yet. Well, I left the bars all on the ground, concluding to call back with the neighbors for 'em as soon as I could let 'em know. On the way home, Rip kept ahead of me. Every time he thought about how I killed the old bar his tail would stand right up on eend, he was so powerful mad. It was gettin on to night, and began to grow freezin' cold. About half a mile from the house, Rip he come to a halt, thinkin' he'd have another look back in the direction of the bars. The scent of 'em raised his dander wuss than ever. His tail stood right squar up, as stiff as a hop handle. Just then it came on colder than ever, and poor Rip's tail friz exactly as it stood. I was in a bad fix. I had no fire to thaw it. While I was thinkin' what I'd do to get it down again, a big buck-deer sprung up, and darted right over a fence about fifty yards ahead. Rip didn't wait to be told where to go, but pitched right arter the deer. I cracked away with my rifle, and just raised the fuzz between his horns. As soon as Rip got to the fence he thought he'd make a short cut, so he dashed right through, but his tail was so brittle it broke off between the rails! Poor old Rip was done for good. He never had a tail to show after that; it broke his spirit as well as his tail; that's how he come to lose it. And now, gentlemen, I am getting a little dry, and if you have no objection we'll take a cock-tail."

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

Nothing but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue.
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it, ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

TUESDAY MORNING, OCT. 22, 1861.

GEN. FREMONT.—The last news from the States left Gen. Fremont in the neighborhood of Jefferson City, it was said, in pursuit of Gen. Price, with the determination to overtake him in his retreat South, and give him battle. The events which have occurred in Missouri—the battle at Springfield—the death of Lyon—the occurrence at Lexington—have produced an immense prejudice and feeling against Gen. Fremont, and are undoubtedly the cause of the complaints made against him by Col. Blair. It was the censures of Gen. Fremont, by the St. Louis News—the article supposed to have been written by Col. Blair—that caused Fremont to direct the arrest of Mr. Ramsay, the editor of the paper, and its suspension. Ramsay refused to disclose—very properly—the name of the writer of the article. An immense pressure has been made upon the Government to displace Gen. Fremont. But that was not likely to be done, on the eve of an impending battle. The San Francisco Bulletin says that many friends of Government, of men who understand the character of Fremont, say he will fail in that battle. One thing seems to be certain—his military character is to end in a fizzle or he is to be a hero. If he drives the marauders from Missouri, it will be well with him.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.—Lyman Reynolds, a Union man, left New Orleans on the 13th September, and has arrived at New York. He says that almost every man in New Orleans belonged to some military organization, and that there were fifteen thousand men under arms. Colored regiments were being organized, and were armed with bowie-knives sixteen inches long. Arrests of Union men were constantly being made, and they were leaving the country as rapidly as possible. There was no business doing in New Orleans. Reynolds pronounces the steam battery, shaped like a porpoise, a humbug. He says the Secessionists believe they will be successful in their rebellion. An adverse or two would essentially change their belief.

THOMAS FRANCIS MEAGHER.—No treasonable sentiments comes from this patriotic Irishman—hence he will not often be heard from in the Advertiser. The rebel, John Mitchell, can always occupy its columns. At a late Union meeting in Boston, the following dispatch was read from Captain Meagher:

"I deeply regret the impossibility of being with the citizens of Massachusetts this evening; the Irish Brigade imperatively detains me here. The cause you defend is also an Irish cause. There is no hope for Ireland if you fail to win. There is no hope for liberty any where if the United States fail to win.

HOW TREASONABLE PAPERS ARE CIRCULATED.—The Cleveland Herald says that the New York Day Book and News were distributed gratuitously in that State before they were suppressed. That paper also says that the following circular was sown broadcast:

"CONFIDENTIAL.

Mr. : Sir—I understand you to be an influential citizen of county. I take the liberty of sending you our paper, the Daily News, for one month. The cost is defrayed by a society whose object is to enlist the talent of the State in favor of peace measures. Should you think proper to become a subscriber after that date, please signify the same."

This will enable the public to understand how treasonable papers are published and circulated.

Caleb Cushing, with Ex-Gov. Stevens, has wheeled into the Union line. Cushing said in a late speech, that "But one thing remains to the United States, and that is to conquer victory." Massachusetts is, indeed, a unit. Not a man of any note in her professional or business circles, not one who has ever attained any eminence as a politician, now talks of peace, or compromise, while the rebels stand with arms in their hands.

From Washington Territory.

OLYMPIA, W. T., OCT. 17, 1861.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Yesterday a petition was in circulation among Union men, and numerously signed by all parties, addressed to the postmaster of this place, to prohibit the circulation of that immaculate sheet, the Portland Advertiser, in this vicinity. If every place would do this, we should soon see an end to such treasonable sheets.

Speaking of treason, reminds me that a good deal, of late, has been said about the Chiefs of the late Secession Government, Jas. Tilton and his co-laborers. This mystery has not been cleared up yet. It is a known fact, however, that some few months ago, all of Mr. Buchanan's officials here believed, and advocated the right of secession. It is understood that Major Tilton is about to make an expose in which he will say many things about himself. It seems to me that a few words only are required from him to present his true position to the country. "Is he for putting down the rebellion by the means now adopted for such purposes?" If yes, he is a Union man.—If nay, he is a secessionist.

The late Register refused to take the oath of allegiance before Gov. Turney, a short time ago, when applying to be appointed a Notary Public. This Register was lately Chief Clerk of the Surveyor General's office.

Every flag about yesterday, on vessel or pole, was at half-mast, in memory of Capt. Staples.

After all the trouble and anxiety about our Sound mails, everything is going smoothly, just as I write. The new steamer Enterprise makes semi-weekly trips to Victoria with the mails, on Mondays and Thursdays from Olympia, stopping at all intermediate ports except Whatcom, the mail being taken from San Juan to Whatcom by canoe. This latter arrangement is supposed will shortly "last the contract." Such is reported to be the opinion of the Postal Agent. This gentleman (supposed to have partaken too strongly of clams while here,) is believed to have recommended a weekly service on the Sound, and a tri-weekly between Portland and this place. May his recommendation never get to Washington City.

The steamer Eliza Anderson continues her weekly trips to Victoria, leaving on Tuesdays. Large quantities of freight go North by both steamers, making quite a trade for our people.

One or two persons from this county have returned with their "piles" from the Carriboo mines, and report all those who went from this vicinity as doing extraordinary well.

The Olympia Debating Society held its first meeting of the season last evening.

Yours, &c.

GENERAL BANKS.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Evening Post, under date of Sept. 21st, says:

The troops under General Banks, of whom we have heard very little of late, are in splendid condition, and ready for instant conflict with the rebels. The different regiments in his command are under an excellent discipline, and no part of the Federal army can surpass his troops in soldierly qualities. Col. Fletcher Webster's regiment is one of the best of the division. The headquarters are in the wild country, and Mrs. Banks shares the tent life of her husband, and is in consequence very popular with the troops.—That General Banks manages the affairs of his department with commendable secrecy is evident from the different stories respecting his position which are current here.

THE NORTHERN PEACE MEN.—The Louisville Democrat says:

"The secessionists flatter themselves that the North will be divided; that the Democracy of the North will oppose the war. Don't be deceived by any such idea. We know the Democracy of the North better than that. They will be the very last class of men to consent to a division of the Union. A few disappointed politicians who supported Breckinridge, and who are entirely out of credit in their section, want a peace party. These are not enough to make mile posts. They will not make a ripple on the surface in that region."

VALLANDINGHAM APPRECIATED.—A correspondent writing to the Missouri Democrat, from Lexington, Kentucky, says: "I am credibly informed that the Secession Congressman of the First District, H. C. Burnett, has received from the Southern Confederacy, through the agency of George N. Saunders, 5,000 stand of arms, for the Secession camp "Vallandingham," that 3,500 more are soon to be used to attack the camp of Kentucky Union men in Garrard county.

IMPRESSMENT OF WOMEN.—The Memphis Appeal of Sept. 5, recommends the impressment of women to do the washing of the soldiers at that place. The washing of the sick soldiers has not been done for two weeks. The Appeal says that the Southern Mother's Home in Memphis is overflowing with sick soldiers, and citizens willing to take any of the sufferers in their own houses are earnestly requested to inform the association.

GEN. DIX, THE RIGHT MAN IN BALTIMORE.—A dispatch from Baltimore of the 19th Sept., says:

"Gen. Dix has made arrests which have given a stunning blow to secessionism in Maryland. He has sufficient forces to crush out secession. Wm. M. Glenn, Esq., proprietor of the Exchange, Secession newspaper, was arrested last evening, and sent immediately to Fort McHenry.

Arrival of the Pacific.

The steamer Pacific arrived in this port on yesterday afternoon, bringing San Francisco papers including the 17th. They furnish us with a few additional items by the last pony.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—All information received at head quarters show the enemy is prodigiously strong—numbering nearly 200,000 men—and that an offensive movement is at present intended. Johnston and Smith favor an active policy, but Beauregard insists on standing on the defensive.

The President has restored Col. Delaware to his command of the Indiana legion.

The cargo of the Bermuda—the British steamship that avoided the blockade and entered Savannah—consisted of cannon, military stores, medicines, &c., costing $1,000,000.

The Merrimac, raised at Norfolk, is armed and fitted for sea. She will be an ugly customer.

J. C. Breckinridge and other Kentuckians, are in Virginia. He is expected at Richmond, and will engage actively in the war.

A negro insurrection was started in Jasper county, Mississippi, and thirty-five negroes hung and a number of others killed. It was a widespread insurrection.

There was a report that 2,000 rebels were marching to burn the bridge across the Gasconade river.

It is Gen. Fremont's intention to follow Price rapidly and cautiously. He says he does not want any more men; that he has sufficient to go anywhere through the South. He has entire confidence in his army and officers, and the soldiers repose great trust in him. Information was received here that McCullough's forces were on the south bank of the Osage river a few days since, with the design of cutting off Fremont's communication with St. Louis, and then marching on that city.

News from Fortress Monroe, Oct. 6, is, that 5,000 troops are at Richmond; that the rebel army on the Potomac is 150,000 men, and that serious apprehensions are entertained of an attack on the seaboard.

Powerful batteries have been erected on the James River, in anticipation of an advance of our troops.

Gov. Brown, of Georgia, has recalled five regiments to defend that State. The rebel troops were suffering greatly from the want of medicine, clothing, and certain kinds of food.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 17.—The Memphis papers of the 30th September, state that 50,000 Enfield rifles, which came into a Southern port some time ago, have arrived at Memphis.

European Intelligence to September 27th.

The Paris Patrie denies, but the English journals assert that France and Spain intend intervention in the affairs of Mexico. The London Times says the intervention is with the full concurrence of the American Government.

The issue of notices for the adoption of short time on the Lancashire mills was daily becoming more apparent, and, under these circumstances, spinners and manufacturers were showing an increased confidence to abstain from placing their goods on the market until prices shall have attained a point in some degree commensurate with the rise of the rate of raw material.

Further correspondence from Dr. Russell is published. In one letter, he says he has no doubt whatever of the ultimate power of the Northern and Western States to subjugate the Seceded States, if they put forth their strength.

The London Post publishes the forms of a treaty between France and Spain for immediate intervention in the affairs of Mexico.—There is no intention of engaging in territorial war, but the combined naval force of the three powers will occupy the principal ports in the Gulf. An effectual blockade will be instantly established.

The coming of Gen. Rousseau's regiment across the river had a shocking effect upon our secessionists. Every man of them lost his rights and Sunday its neutrality.—Louisville Journal.

A Missouri letter writer, who inclines to be an admirer of Gen. Price, says that he is a man of volcanic passions. The General certainly bears considerable resemblance to a volcano—being much subject to inflamation of the bowels.—Louisville Journal.

OLD SCHOOL PRESBYTERIANS IN CALIFORNIA.—At a late sermon of this body at Napa, they unanimously reported "that this Synod has no possible sympathy with the treasonable opinions thought by some to have been entertained by Dr. Scott, and that we detest treason against the United States Government, coming under whatever guise it may, or by whomsoever uttered, as a heinous sin against God, and a detestable crime against the nation."

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of Pulmonary, Bronchial and Asthmatic Affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of this disease, no one should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

NEW TO-DAY.

CITY.

FOWL PROCEEDINGS.—Harry Hyde was arraigned yesterday morning before Recorder Bailey on the charge of petit larceny, it was caught in the act of stealing chickens from the coop of Officer Brannan on Sunday evening. Harry made the cull a little too soon in the evening—supposing that the aforesaid officer was on duty—and as he was taking down some of the finest pullets Brannan "nailed him." He was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs, or while away three months in jail, in repentance. Not having the change about him, Harry was accordingly sent up for that length of time.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Emma Mitchell was yesterday morning arraigned before the Recorder, on a charge made by Wm Bayhouse for violating Ordinance No 10, in striking his boy, some four years old, for which offence his Honor assessed her $10 and costs.

Major General George B McClellan received the honors of Masonry in the Willamette Lodge of this city, in the winter of 1850-51.

LUMBER.—The demand for lumber in Portland this season, has been immense. The old stocks on hand are in a fair way of being used up, and all that can be made by our mills is in full demand. Harbaugh & Suttdel's saw mill is running all the time—scarcely stopping long enough to take breath. We trust that it will by no means be forgotten that our saw mills will require many plank to put them in order—and some labor to make them safe for operations. Those whose business it is to see to this matter, have now little time to do up their work.

Visit Vallard's establishment, west of the Oregonian office. There can be found a variety of goods—such as every family needs—many of cheap! cheap! You who want to prepare for the winter, be on hand.

HOWE & CATES are greatly enlarging their store. Drugs, medicines, paints, oils for painting and burning—with supplies direct from New York.

UPPER WORKS.—It is said that no timbers of the man as well as fine upper cuts. The Hats of Butler & Brother cannot be beat any where for style, beauty and wear. Old stand—a little north of the Pre-emption Hotel.

HARDWARE AT COST.—Builders, blacksmiths, farmers, joiners, wagon makers—if you want to lay in a stock of goods at cost, now's your time. John R Foster, corner of Oak and Front streets will give you such bargains as if you are reasonable men, you will be satisfied with.

NEW PAPER.—The material for a paper to be published at Walla Walla has been purchased in this city. It will start for that point next Friday morning.

VOLUNTEERS.—The Pacific brought up five companies of volunteers to garrison the forts in Oregon. They were landed at Vancouver.

AMERICA PACIFIC.—The steamer Pacific arrived here about seven o'clock last evening. She brings no later dates from the States than we received by the last Pony. We thank Wells, Fargo & Co. for extensive files of newspapers. The following is the memorandum and list of passengers:

PASSENGERS.—Steamer Pacific, S L DeWolf commander left San Francisco Oct. 17th, at 6 P M. On the 20th, at 4 P M, crossed out Cortes in Columbia Bar.

For Portland—Col. A. Cady and two servants, U. S. A., Miss Curtis, Captain Smith, Schneider, Gibbs, O Brien, Hall, Lewis, Campbell, Henry, Watson, Brady, Fairfield, Smith, Miss McDougal, Hill, Capt. C Hopkins, R Bennett, Dr. Parry and servant, C Walker, Rev. Mr. Perry, P. Anderson, Rev G Edwards, J Newstadt, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Taylor, B. H Osborn, G W Ainsworth, G. F. Wagenblatt, R. Stege and wife, J Cook, M Rosa, M Levy, J. Schobiter, Mrs M. Bingham and four children, H Lee, P Sumpter and wife, C. Strong & both, J Kelly, J. Broum, C Crawford, W E Vansickle, T B Kennedy, Mr. Perkins, G Gate, R. W Bucklin and brother, S. B. Hunt, G. Billings, 33 other passengers and 3 in the steerage. S. Woods, Chas Morgan, (W F & Co's express agent.)

J H Foster Purser.

WAREHOUSE AT OREGON CITY.—The Argus says the new warehouse is rapidly approaching to completion, and the break-water is rapidly being repaired. Hereafter, freights will be raised and lowered there by means of a car running up and down an inclined plane. It is not the intention to replace the mills at present.

THE NEW BOAT.—The new steamboat, launched at Canemah, on Saturday, is designed for the Yamhill trade. The Argus says she is ninety-five feet long, sixteen feet beam, and four feet hold. She is five feet longer than the Clinton, which was burnt, but will draw less water and carry more freight. Capt. Lambert is the shipwright.

The Victoria Colonist says that several of the San Francisco steam ship owners are anxious to obtain the subsidy and carry the mails semi-monthly, without touching at Portland.

The report that Gen. Sumner has received orders to leave at once for the East is contradicted. He has only received orders to be in readiness.

Ex-Governor Stevens, as Colonel, led the late advance of 2,500 men into Virginia. We believe that Gov. Stevens will make his mark in this war.

Of all diseases, the first great cause.
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not a single cure of ignorance in all stages of secret diseases—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance and all diseases arising from ordering much of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, Imperfect Wind, Loss Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Lazy Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Periodical Irregularities—and all unpleasant or discharges of both sexes. If quarters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate that may be, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even if the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, the greatest of their brethren of time. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above-mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who merely fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which with the disease, insures the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, fever sores, eruptions and other affections of Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

[illegible] was paid to the contributors of three of the [illegible] having recommended [illegible] by gratitude, make it my [illegible] and recorded agents, and their statements [illegible] by a Notary Public. The demand of [illegible] urgently commanded their publicity, and we [illegible] them to the attention of all afflicted.

The undersigned, desirous of [illegible] those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, with a permanent relief of their sufferings have [illegible] feel it a duty to thus publicly express his [illegible] gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the [illegible] recovery of his health. Bowed down by the [illegible] and wretchedness, the victim of premature practices of unscrupulous pretenders, depressed in body and mind with [illegible] pectoral and the most agonizing pains, and [illegible] the dreary wreck of life, I sought the advice of many [illegible] various, who all first pronounced my disease as of trifling importance, but after a few weeks, and in several instances months of their treatment, I found, to my astonishment, that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their nature, and being told by one [illegible] my case was so long protracted to the brain [illegible] would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever [illegible] my health, strength and energy; and as a last resort, [illegible] with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which [illegible] instantly removed me of the dull pain and dizziness in the head. I encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict observance of his directions and advice, my head became clear, my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and [illegible] weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the [illegible] and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of [illegible] in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable [illegible] night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared; and in fact, in two months after having [illegible] the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience that all [illegible] under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

Marysville, June 25, 1861.

Dr. L. J. Czapkay, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine, and do not think I shall need more, as I feel very well, except that I have not got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I left your institute, with my constitution, as I thought, [illegible] entirely, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do so, by [illegible] to ease the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my nerves so that I would not get excited and fret about anything. Now that you know what I expected, you can judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from the symptoms, and the removal of those sores and boils from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and that [illegible] page of those emissions, which you said were [illegible] cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having got my strength, I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charges, as I think myself cheaply cured. If you think as lowly I am benefited, you may put this letter in the newspapers. I remain gratefully yours, THOMAS HAYDT.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

Certificate.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a [illegible] which, owing to my inability to meet the [illegible] quent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the [illegible] agonment which I met with on attempting it, soon [illegible] such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of [illegible] physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of [illegible] thrown down to the ground without the slightest [illegible] and although insensible to the agonies, I yet [illegible] miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon [illegible] would render assistance or shelter me from the [illegible] miles who sought to prolong the existence of my [illegible] While in this state, and having, previous to my [illegible] tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to [illegible] seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation of [illegible] upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services, [illegible] of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and to the blessing of God, I was once more restored to good health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I now [illegible] present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I [illegible] due to myself and all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician to whom every confidence can be placed.
